

Dabbling in fun times

ALBERT & LOGAN 24/10/07

■ WHALE watching, house parties, barbecues, dinners, tennis, trivia nights, book club, dances, and camping are some of the activities organised by the Dabblers Social Club.

New club public relations officer Jackie Graham, of Regents Park, said the club was not a dating group, but a social and activities club although some people have met their life partners there.

"We even have some Dabblers babies," she said.

Mrs Graham, who is a commercial property manager at Yatala, said she joined because her sister was a member.

A member for six years before moving to Melbourne, Mrs Graham rejoined the club

■ Making friends . . . Roger Graham is social secretary of the Dabblers, a club which tries many social activities.

when she returned to Brisbane last December.

"It changed my life, it was marvellous," she said.

In Brisbane, there are 300 members including Mrs

Graham's husband, Roger, who is the club's social secretary.
